ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES—2002/2003 Lecture Series

Dr. Aviva Gottlieb Zornberg lectured at the Fraternity on November 21st on the topic, “‘And I did not know.’ The Secret of Prayer’.” Dr. Zornberg analyzed the life of Jacob according to the account of Genesis 27-35. The sociological, psychological and religious insights kept a large audience fascinated. Aviva Zornberg teaches Bible and Midrash and is the author of Genesis: The Beginning of Desire (1995, paperback 1996) and Exodus: The Particulars of Rapture (2001, paperback 2002). December 19th Prof. James Charlesworth gave a lecture on “The Spirituality of the Dead Sea Scrolls.” The assumption was that the community of the Dead Sea spent three centuries in the desert in order to search for and to understand God’s Will. Does that mean that we can learn for the present time, from their findings? This lecture was attended by a record audience.

—Remarkable Discoveries

The Jerusalem Center for Biblical Studies and the Israel Nature and Parks Authority has announced: “Remarkable Archeological Discoveries Found at Byzantine Monastery at Kursi National Park.” During the excavations in the early 1970s led by Prof. Vassilos Tzaferis, one of the largest and most important monasteries in Israel was discovered. Excavations were renewed last year. Now, structures within the monastery compound have been uncovered, and part of a Byzantine bathhouse that was used by pilgrims was discovered. This is the only bathhouse ever found within a monastery. In addition, there were “some remarkable discoveries of subterranean areas from which much can be learned of the Persian invasion of 614 A.D.” For more information: Brian Kvasnica at mskvas@mscc.huji.ac.il .

The Ecumenical Theological Research Fraternity in Israel was founded in 1966 by a group of professors, theologians and lay people in Jerusalem. They shared the perspective that recent history demanded a fundamental consideration of Christian attitudes towards the Jewish faith and people, and that the State of Israel offered a unique setting for facing this task together.

Today, the ETRFI is the recognized roof-organization for Christians engaged in Christian-Jewish dialogue in Israel. It is also the ecumenical group containing the widest range of members from all the historic churches.
