

O God our Father

we all, Jews and Christians of different traditions, we partake the same roots, but so often in our history we were opposed one to the other as enemies.

You are the Lord that turns the rock into pools of water, and the flint into fountains of water: turn our hearts and guide us into ways of friendship, respect and fraternity.

מן העולם ועד העולם 'ברוך אתה ה.

Sr. Raffaella