

You are invited to a book launch for an important new book

REDEEMING JESUS' NAME

Reflections of a Ninety-Year-Old Nun Living in Jerusalem

September 21, 2023, 16:00-17:30

@ the convent of Notre Dame De Sion, Ein Kerem

Moderator

Dr. Marcie Lenk, Scholar of Christianity and Judaism, Past Academic Director of Bat Kol

Presentation

Prof. Maureena Fritz, Sister of Our Lady of Sion, Professor emerita, Faculty of Theology, University of St. Michael's College, Toronto, and founder of the Bat Kol Institute in Jerusalem: Why I wrote this book

Brief Responses

Rabbi Dr. Irving Yitz Greenberg, Senior Scholar in Residence, Hadar Institute of New York and Jerusalem

Prof. Paul E. Knitter, Paul Tillich Emeritus Professor of Theology and Religion, Union Theological Seminary New York City, via ZOOM

Prof. Peter DuBrul, S.J. Professor of Philosophy and Humanities, Bethlehem University

Followed by light refreshments and mingling

Registration: Please register before 18 September by sending an email to: nds.einkerem23@gmail.com.

Enrollment limited to 60.

Parking available only until 18:15