Dr. Elaine Phillips is the emerita Harold John Ockenga distinguished professor of biblical studies at Gordon College in Boston, Massachusetts and adjunct professor for Jerusalem University College in Israel. She is the author of a number of books, most recently Obadiah, Jonah & Micah. The Apollos Old Testament Commentary (IVP Academic, 2022). The lecture will focus on Micah, the eighth century BCE prophet from Maresha in the Judean Shephelah, who challenged political and religious leaders in difficult geo-political contexts. In a PowerPoint Presentation, Dr. Phillips will explore the prophetic discourses of Micah through geographical/historical, literary, and theological lenses, mindful that Micah's messages are timeless.

The Ecumenical Theological Research Fraternity in Israel is grateful to Rev. Dr. Oliver Hersey, President of the Jerusalem University College, for the joint venture of this lecture which will happen in hybrid form both on Zoom and at the campus of the Jerusalem University College on Mount Zion.
