

Remembering the monks
Of Lavra Netofa
Father Jacob and Father Thomas

Thursday, May 4 2017, at 20.00
Ratisbonne Monastery in Jerusalem
26 Shmuel HaNagid Street

Program

Pnina Bar, the author of the book 'Jacob and Thomas The Monks from Mount Netofa': "Yacov and Toma"

Rev. David Neuhaus SJ, Latin Patriarchal Vicar:
"Light from the East"

Musical accompaniment by the Saints Simeon and Anne Community

The evening will be in English and in Hebrew

Father Thomas Father Jacob

Lavra Netofa was a Byzantine monastic community that sought to live a life of prayer, contemplation, study and work in simplicity. The community opened its gates to all and saw itself as a place of meeting for people from the three religions, Christians, Jews and Muslims. Many frequented the place over the forty years of its existence.